

CONFIDENTIALITY AND DATA ROOM ACCESS AGREEMENT

(Prospective Investor Non-Disclosure Agreement)

Liamaiia Holdings LLC and its Affiliates

Version 0.1 (26 September 2026). Form A: electronic acceptance at the data-room gate.

This Confidentiality and Data Room Access Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of the date of acceptance shown below (the "Effective Date") between Liamaiia Holdings LLC, a Wyoming limited liability company with its principal office at 1713 N 3780 W, Lehi, Utah 84048 ("Liamaiia"), acting for itself and on behalf of each of its Affiliates (together with Liamaiia, the "Company Group"), and the person or entity accepting this Agreement (the "Recipient").

1. Purpose

The Company Group is prepared to make certain non-public information available to Recipient solely so that Recipient may evaluate whether to make, or to discuss making, an investment in one or more members of the Company Group (the "Purpose"). Access is offered to Recipient because of an existing personal or business relationship between Recipient and the Company Group's founder, Kristopher Andre Templeman (the "Founder").

2. Definitions

"Affiliate" means each entity that is controlled by, controls, or is under common control with Liamaiia, including without limitation PatentInvest LLC (the intellectual-property holding company), AI II Consulting LLC doing business as Alpha Inception, Trouvera Health, AttestAlly and IndieStarlight (each a Wyoming corporation being formed), Alpha Inception Press, any entity formed to operate the businesses known as Trouvera Health, AttestAlly, IndieStarlight or Alpha Inception Press, and Trouvera.org or any charitable organisation established by the Founder, and the Founder in his personal capacity as inventor and applicant of record on patent applications that are to be assigned to the Company Group.

"Confidential Information" means all information, in any form, disclosed or made available to Recipient by or on behalf of the Company Group in connection with the Purpose, whether before or after the Effective Date, including without limitation: (a) unpublished patent applications, provisional applications, invention disclosures, claim drafts, prior-art analyses, prosecution strategy and correspondence with the United States Patent and Trademark Office or counsel; (b) trade secrets, know-how, algorithms, models, prompts, datasets, source code, architecture and system documentation; (c) business plans, product roadmaps, go-to-market plans, pricing, financial statements, projections, budgets, capitalisation tables, valuation analyses and the terms of any proposed financing; (d) customer, user, tester, partner, supplier and contact information and metrics; (e) the fact that the Company Group is considering a financing, the identity of other persons given access to the Data Room, and the status of discussions; (f) all notes, analyses, summaries and other materials prepared by Recipient or its Representatives that contain or reflect any of the foregoing; and (g) any information that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential given its nature and the circumstances of disclosure, whether or not marked.

"Data Room" means the access-controlled online repository maintained by or for the Company Group at alphainception.com/invest/room or any successor location, together with any documents, presentations, recordings, video calls, demonstrations, site visits or other communications provided in connection with the Purpose.

"Representatives" means Recipient's officers, directors, partners, members, employees, and professional advisers (including attorneys, accountants and investment advisers) who need to know Confidential Information for the Purpose and who are bound by duties of confidentiality at least as protective as this Agreement.

3. Exclusions

Confidential Information does not include information that Recipient can demonstrate by written records: (a) was or becomes generally available to the public other than through a breach of this Agreement by Recipient or its Representatives; (b) was lawfully known to Recipient without restriction before disclosure by the Company Group; (c) is lawfully received by Recipient from a third party who is not, to Recipient's knowledge, under any duty of confidentiality with respect to it; or (d) is independently developed by Recipient without use of or reference to Confidential Information. The publication by the United States Patent and Trademark Office of a patent application makes public only what is published; unpublished applications, and any information not contained in a publication, remain Confidential Information.

4. Recipient's obligations

(a) Use. Recipient will use Confidential Information solely for the Purpose and for no other purpose, including without limitation to compete with the Company Group, to develop or improve any product or service, to solicit any customer, tester, partner, contractor or employee of the Company Group, or to trade in any security.

(b) Care. Recipient will hold Confidential Information in strict confidence using at least the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information of like importance, and in no event less than reasonable care.

(c) Disclosure. Recipient will not disclose Confidential Information to any person other than its Representatives, and will be responsible for any act or omission of its Representatives that would breach this Agreement if committed by Recipient.

(d) No reverse engineering. Recipient will not decompile, disassemble, reverse engineer or attempt to derive the source code, models, prompts, training data or underlying methods of any software, demonstration or system made available to it.

(e) No derivative filings. Recipient will not, and will not assist any person to, file or prosecute any patent application, or register any trademark, copyright or domain name, that is based on, derived from or discloses any Confidential Information. Any such filing made in breach of this sentence is held in trust for the Company Group and Recipient will assign it to PatentInvest LLC on request.

(f) Confidential disclosure. Recipient acknowledges that every disclosure under this Agreement is a confidential disclosure made under an obligation of secrecy, is not a public disclosure, printed publication, public use, sale or offer for sale, and does not make any invention "otherwise available to the public" within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. §102 or any foreign equivalent.

(g) Notice of breach. Recipient will notify the Company Group promptly in writing on becoming aware of any unauthorised use or disclosure of Confidential Information and will cooperate to regain possession and prevent further unauthorised use.

5. Data Room access terms

Credentials issued to Recipient are personal to the named individual and may not be shared. Recipient will not permit any other person to view the Data Room using Recipient's credentials, will not photograph, screen-record or capture Data Room content other than through any download function the Company Group enables, and will not remove, obscure or alter any watermark, legend or notice. Recipient consents to the Company Group logging Recipient's access to the Data Room (including documents viewed, time spent, IP address and device information) and retaining those logs for the term of this Agreement plus any period required by law. The Company Group may suspend or revoke access at any time without notice and without liability. Documents in the Data Room may be updated, corrected or withdrawn at any time; Recipient should rely only on the version current at the time of any investment decision, and then only as incorporated in definitive investment documents.

6. Compelled disclosure

If Recipient or a Representative is required by law, regulation, stock-exchange rule, subpoena or court order to disclose Confidential Information, Recipient will, to the extent legally permitted, give the Company Group prompt written notice so that it may seek a protective order, will cooperate reasonably in that effort at the Company Group's expense, and will disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information that its counsel advises is legally required. Nothing in this Agreement prohibits Recipient from reporting possible violations of law to any governmental agency or from making disclosures protected by whistle-blower laws, and Recipient is not required to notify the Company Group of any such report.

7. No offer; investor status; no reliance

(a) No offer. Neither this Agreement, the Data Room nor any Confidential Information constitutes an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any security. Any offer will be made only by a member of the Company Group, only to persons it selects, and only through definitive subscription or purchase documents that will supersede all information in the Data Room. No member of the Company Group is obliged to offer any security or to accept any subscription.

(b) Pre-existing relationship. Recipient confirms that Recipient has an existing personal or business relationship with the Founder, that Recipient was invited to the Data Room individually and not through any advertisement, public website, seminar or other general solicitation, and that Recipient did not learn of any proposed financing through general solicitation or general advertising.

(c) Accredited investor. Recipient represents that Recipient is an "accredited investor" as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933, and will complete an accredited-investor questionnaire and provide reasonable supporting information before any investment. If Recipient is not an accredited investor, Recipient will indicate that at the point of acceptance and will be given access only to the general information tier of the Data Room.

(d) No reliance; forward-looking statements. Confidential Information is provided for information only. The Company Group makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any Confidential Information, and will have no liability to Recipient or its Representatives resulting from its use, except as may be expressly set out in definitive investment documents. Projections, roadmaps, valuations, market estimates and statements about products not yet built are forward-looking, are based on assumptions that may prove wrong, and are not guarantees. Documents in the Data Room distinguish between what is built and operating and what is planned; Recipient should not treat a planned capability as an existing one.

(e) Founder disclosures. The Data Room contains a disclosure statement concerning the Founder's personal financial history and the Company Group's legal and regulatory matters. Recipient acknowledges that it has been directed to read that statement before any investment.

(f) No advice. Nothing in the Data Room is investment, legal, tax or accounting advice. Recipient should consult its own advisers.

8. No licence; ownership

All Confidential Information remains the property of the Company Group (or, for patent applications not yet assigned, the Founder as applicant of record, who has agreed to assign them to PatentInvest LLC). No licence or other right under any patent, patent application, copyright, trade secret, trademark or other intellectual property is granted or implied by this Agreement or by any disclosure. Recipient will not acquire any residual right to use Confidential Information retained in the unaided memory of its Representatives; there is no "residuals" exception under this Agreement.

9. Return and destruction

On the Company Group's written request, or when Recipient decides not to proceed with the Purpose, Recipient will promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information in its possession or control, including all copies, notes and derivative materials, and will confirm in writing that it has done so; provided that Recipient may retain (i) one archival copy in the files of its legal counsel solely to evidence its obligations under this Agreement, and (ii) copies retained automatically in routine electronic back-up systems, in each case subject to this Agreement for as long as retained.

10. Term

This Agreement governs all Confidential Information disclosed from the date Recipient was first given information about the Purpose, whether before or after the Effective Date. Recipient's obligations continue for three (3) years from the Effective Date, except that (a) obligations with respect to any Confidential Information that constitutes a trade secret under applicable law continue for as long as that information remains a trade secret, and (b) obligations with respect to unpublished patent applications continue until the application in question is published by a patent office or abandoned without publication. Sections 4(e), 4(f), 8, 11 and 13 survive any expiry or termination.

11. Remedies

Recipient acknowledges that unauthorised use or disclosure of Confidential Information would cause the Company Group irreparable harm for which monetary damages would be an inadequate remedy. The Company Group is entitled to seek injunctive relief, specific performance and other equitable remedies for any actual or threatened breach, without proof of actual damages and without posting bond, in addition to all other remedies available at law or in equity. If the Company Group prevails in any action to enforce this Agreement it may recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

12. Founder waiver; alternative summary

The Founder may, in writing, waive or modify this Agreement for a particular recipient, or may provide a recipient who declines to accept this Agreement with only the public summary tier of information. No course of dealing with any other recipient alters this Agreement as to Recipient.

13. General

(a) Governing law and venue. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Utah without regard to its conflict-of-laws rules. The state and federal courts located in Salt Lake County or Utah County, Utah have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising out of this Agreement, and each party submits to their jurisdiction and waives any objection to venue; provided that the Company Group may seek injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction. EACH PARTY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT.

(b) Electronic acceptance. Recipient agrees that clicking "I Agree" (or an equivalent control) after entering Recipient's name, or otherwise electronically indicating assent, constitutes Recipient's signature and acceptance of this Agreement under the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act and the Utah Uniform Electronic Transactions Act, and that the Company Group's electronic record of acceptance (including name, email, IP address, timestamp and the version of this text accepted) is admissible evidence of the agreement.

(c) Authority. If Recipient accepts on behalf of an entity, the individual accepting represents that he or she is authorised to bind that entity, and "Recipient" includes both the entity and the individual.

(d) Entire agreement; amendment. This Agreement is the entire agreement of the parties on its subject matter and supersedes all prior understandings. It may be amended or waived only in a writing signed (or electronically accepted) by both parties, except as provided in Section 12.

(e) Assignment. Recipient may not assign this Agreement without the Company Group's prior written consent. Liamaia may assign this Agreement to any Affiliate or to a successor of all or substantially all of the business to which the Confidential Information relates, and each Affiliate is an intended third-party beneficiary entitled to enforce it.

(f) Severability; no waiver. If any provision is held unenforceable it will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible and the remainder will remain in effect. No failure or delay in exercising any right operates as a waiver.

(g) Notices. Notices to the Company Group go to andre@alphainception.com with a copy to the principal office address above. Notices to Recipient go to the email address used to accept this Agreement.

(h) Export and sanctions. Recipient represents that it is not, and is not owned or controlled by, a person subject to U.S. sanctions, and will not export or re-export Confidential Information in violation of U.S. export-control law.
